

ST. MARK'S COLLEGE

SUMMER 2017 COURSE OFFERINGS

Term starts on July 4, 2017 – ends on July 29, 2017

THEO 501: Foundations of Theology (3 credits)

The course examines the nature of theology. It looks at revelation (Scripture and Tradition), spirituality, liturgy, philosophy including the role of faith and reason, and the human sciences. It reviews the major periods of history of the church and the role of the teaching office (Magisterium). It examines the importance of theology for the church and considers aspects of moral and pastoral concern.

Instructor: Dr. Christophe Potworowski

Onsite classes: July 4-7 & July 10-14

8:30am – 12:30pm (Room 102)

SPIR 537: Leadership and Spirituality (3 credits)

This course will focus on the spirituality of an engaged leader, one who tends to their own spiritual needs while leading others in Catholic organizations in the fields of health care, education, parish and society. Models of Christian leadership and spiritual growth will be explored with the view of enhancing participants' current and future practice of leadership in the midst of our global and post-modern age.

Instructor: Dr. Michael Dallaire
