

SUMMER 1 2018

COURSE OFFERINGS

Term starts on April 3, 2017 - ends on June 23, 2017

SCRI 505: Introduction to Scripture - Offsite (3 credits)

This course is a basic introduction to Scripture for graduate students without previous background in Scripture. The course covers both the Old and New Testaments in their own contexts, thematic parallels between them, and gives attention to how the Catholic intellectual tradition engages these textual traditions.

Instructor: Sr. Gabriella, Yi, OP, Ph.D.

Onsite Classes: Apr. 13-14, May 5-6, May 25-26

Fridays: 5:00pm – 9:00pm & Saturdays: 9:00am – 5:00pm

Archbishop Carney Regional Secondary School, Port Coquitlam

SCRI 505: Introduction to Scripture - Online (3 credits)

This course is a basic introduction to Scripture for graduate students without previous background in Scripture. The course covers both the Old and New Testaments in their own contexts, thematic parallels between them, and gives attention to how the Catholic intellectual tradition engages these textual traditions.

Instructor: Dr. John Martens

Online Classes: May – June (8 weeks)

THEO 510: Christology & Trinity (3 credits)

Jesus Christ as Lord: the expectation of the Messiah, the first proclamation of Jesus as Christ and Lord; the development of doctrine; contemporary understanding. A review of the Christian doctrine of the Trinity through biblical, liturgical, historical and contemporary theology on the Trinity.

Instructor: Dr. Christophe Potworowski

Onsite classes: Apr. 20-21, May 11-12, June 22-23

Fridays: 5:00pm - 9:00pm & Saturdays: 9:00am – 5:00pm (Room 102)

CALR 510: Leadership and Aims of Catholic Education (3 credits)

This course will provide students with an opportunity to explore, discuss, and reflect on some of the seminal ideas of leadership and aims of Catholic education, and their relationship to the concepts presented in various Church documents. Also, the course will lead students to examine contemporary teaching and learning practices in a Catholic educational environment.

Instructor: Dr. Emil Canlas

Onsite classes: Apr. 20-21, May 11-12, June 22-23

Fridays: 5:00pm - 9:00pm & Saturdays: 9:00am – 5:00pm (Room 300)

Students eligible to register for CAPSTONE COURSE, please contact the Dean.

REGISTER NOW!

Courses are offered for both credit and audit.

For inquiries, please contact Emil Canlas at 604.822.4463 ext. 104

or email at ecanlas@stmarkscollege.ca

Register online through MyLION SMC