

THE ROLE OF THE LAITY IN THE REFORM OF THE CHURCH: A MODEST BUT URGENT PROPOSAL

Monday, May 27

7pm – Room 100 at Wesbrook Building, 6174 University Blvd at UBC
FREE EVENT • All are welcome!

A keynote presentation by Dr. Michael Higgins, and panel discussion with Fr. Ronald Rolheiser, Sr. Sue Mosteller, and Dr. Angus Reid

John Henry Cardinal Newman provides a marvelous foundation for considering and valuing the role of the laity in the life—and yes, teachings—of the church. How do we use some of Newman's insights for our modern predicament? How do we move forward as a church ever reforming? We will explore one vital direction whereby the laity can influence and shape credible and meaningful spiritual leadership for our time.
